(PIANO FILL)

(85.)

The first staff of music is written on a single five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef, followed by a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The piece starts with a repeat sign. Above the second measure of the repeat, there is a chord symbol "Gm". The melody consists of eighth notes and quarter notes, ending with a whole note rest in the final measure shown.
